Welcome to the IoD's portfolio of learning and development programmes for 2018/19. The last twelve months have been an exciting time for both the IoD and its members, including the launch of the IoD Academy at 118 Pall Mall, the Academy app available to all at iod.com/academy, and record numbers of members earning Chartered Director status.

This brochure is more than just a training calendar – it is your grab-and-go guide to professional development over the coming year, with only your ambitions dictating how far you'll take your learning and the heights you'll reach with the IoD.

From bite-sized CPD content to five-day residential courses, the IoD has learning and development programmes to suit every schedule, budget and goal, whether you're working towards your first senior management position, or are ready to take the next steps towards becoming a Chartered Director.

With training centres across the UK and beyond, your local hub is always there to support you through your journey.

If you have any questions about the courses or qualifications we offer, please don't hesitate to contact our dedicated professional development team for more information.

Louise Gulliver

Managing Director, Professional Development

“Be humble and keep learning, because as a director, the environment is ever changing. Never think that your past experience will fit into the current situation, each board situation is unique and the players are all different.”

Eugene Wong CDir, Managing Director, Sirius Venture Capital

Professional development in Jersey

With a membership comprising of more than 650 business leaders from across the community, both private and public sector, IoD Jersey represents local members' views and concerns to government, while offering professional support and advice.

Through the chair Chris Clark and branch officer Kirsten Higgins, IoD Jersey encourages professional development to the local business community and is proud to have 28 chartered directors among its members.

Company Direction Programme:

Available exclusively in Jersey, the IoD combines the Certificate and Diploma in Company Direction into a 13 day modular programme. This is internationally recognised as the benchmark for directors, providing a robust and challenging programme to meet the needs of today's executives. The Certificate and Diploma lead on to the prestigious qualification of Chartered Director.

“The Commission, which itself requires its regulated community to maintain high standards of governance, has recognised the benefits that can be gained from studying to become a Chartered Director and, on that path, the IoD's Certificate and Diploma in Company Direction. The Commission has supported a number of its own directors in doing so.”

John Harris, Director-General, Jersey Financial Services Commission

Certificate in Company Direction

Role of the Director and the Board

Overview

An introduction to the duties and legal responsibilities of a director, enabling you to tackle the challenges of the boardroom with fresh confidence, understand your board's role in corporate governance and progress your career to the next level.

Whether you're a newly appointed director, aspiring to a position on the board, or looking to improve your performance with fresh insight, this course will equip you with the crucial knowledge and skill-set to fulfil your role successfully.

Course benefits

Develop a practical understanding of best practice in the boardroom. This course will help you to recognise the director's key legal responsibilities, efficiently assess risk, and know how to effectively manage stakeholders while acting in your organisation's best interests.

Learning outcomes

- Gain an in-depth view of the key duties, roles and legal responsibilities of the modern director
- Understand the essential differences between direction, management and ownership
- Examine the board's role in corporate governance and learn how to improve board effectiveness
- Understand the legal status of a company and implications of the Companies Act 2006

“The Role of the Director and the Board module really articulated the responsibilities of directors, especially from a legal point of view. I doubt most directors are actually aware of what they are liable for, and I believe there should be mandatory training for directors such as this when they join a board.”

Paul Bolton CDir, Managing Director, ONECPD

“Talking through different scenarios with the trainers has really helped to understand how best to approach situations and the tools and techniques that can be used.”

Philippa Terry, Director of Resources, Juniper Ventures

Certificate in Company Direction

Leadership for Directors

Overview

Strong leadership is increasingly fundamental to the successful realisation of an organisation's vision. This intensive course provides a valuable opportunity for directors to explore strategic leadership issues both within and beyond their organisation.

This module introduces a more personalised approach to leadership and delegates will be encouraged to understand and develop their own self-awareness and emotional intelligence.

Course benefits

By attending this course you will be equipped with the knowledge and skills necessary to assess the financial health of your business, appreciate the financial impact of the board's strategic decisions and be able to identify the director's legal obligations in relation to finance.

Learning outcomes

- Develop an understanding of how leadership can be defined and understood in relation to the director's role on the board.
- Apply techniques for developing a greater awareness of one-self and of the motivations and behaviours of others
- Create a culture which engages others to achieve the strategic objectives, and to respond effectively to crisis and change
- Identify how leaders create influence within and beyond the organisation, and assess stakeholder engagement strategies

“Throughout the course and my journey towards becoming a Chartered Director, my eyes were opened to the importance of diversity on the board and in the wider business environment at the time.”

Greg Ellison CDir, Group CEO, Capital International Group

Diploma in Company Direction

Developing Board Performance

This is an opportunity to put into practice the knowledge gained from the Certificate in a realistic and safe environment. It encourages peer-group support, challenge and stimulation, mirroring in many ways the operation of a board.

Challenge and utilise the knowledge gained from your experience as a director in an applied and dynamic way. By replicating the issues of a 'real' board, you will gain hands-on experience and feedback that will not only enable you to improve your own performance, but also make a significant impact on your board's effectiveness and tackle future challenges with greater confidence.

Examination fees are included in the course fees. When you have passed the examination you will be awarded the Diploma in Company Direction.

Course outcomes

Participation on this course will enable you to:

- Understand your board's role, its dynamic, power, influence and conflicts
- Gain knowledge of important topics: risk and crisis management, decision-making, mergers and acquisitions, and board performance
- Understand relevant techniques and tools to improve personal skills and that of the board
- Evaluate and improve the performance of your board, its committees and individual directors

“The technical knowledge and learning provided by the Diploma course has given me the confidence to implement many of the changes necessary to enable our business to grow and prosper through the difficult economic and geo-political times that we have operated in over recent years.”

Chartered Director

The IoD is the only institute in the world to offer the internationally recognised Chartered Director qualification, underpinned by our Royal Charter.

The Chartered Director qualification comprises a peer interview to assess your practical experience as a director. The interview, conducted by an experienced peer reviewer, explores your portfolio and the scope of your role(s) as a director. The assessment is based on five key areas which are central to organisational direction and governance.

Qualifying also gives you access to learning materials via the IoD Academy for the rest of your career whilst you are an active IoD member, allowing you to stay ahead of trends and changes to business practices and policies, ensuring you make the best decisions for your career and your board in the years to come.

The following eligibility criteria apply: Applicants must be a member of the IoD and have passed the Certificate and Diploma examinations in Company Direction. Your length of experience in a director role or equivalent should be either: 5 full years' experience in a director level role, or 3 full years' experience in a director level role, plus a chartered professional qualification (via examination).

Chartered Director interviews are held twice monthly. If you are unsure about your eligibility or would like more information about the application process please contact the Chartered Director team on chartered.director@iod.com or +44 (0)207 766 2602

“ I am a huge advocate of lifelong learning, and as this was my first real director level role I wanted to ensure that I was fulfilling my role and responsibilities to the best of my abilities. My CEO is also a Chartered Director and is keen that the majority of our board attain the qualification.”
Vickie Brown CDir, Finance Director, Distinction Group
