

In collaboration with

University of St Andrews

Business
School
Executive
Education

Global Certificate in Company Direction

---

The pinnacle of boardroom excellence

Elevate your presence with our exclusive, immersive, and transformational boardroom excellence programme

The Global Certificate in Company Direction is an exceptional executive education programme, created by the Institute of Directors (IoD) in collaboration with the University of St Andrews Business School.

This prestigious programme empowers directors to meet the complex challenges of the global business landscape. It will equip you with the knowledge, skills and strategic insight to lead effectively.

Empowering directors

Leaders in every type of organisation and industry face unprecedented change, both in and outside the boardroom. This exclusive residential is for a limited number of global directors, ensuring a high-calibre learning experience.

- |   |                                      |  |  |  |                                 |
|---|--------------------------------------|--|--|--|---------------------------------|
| 1   | Fast-track your director development | 2  | World-class faculty leadership for directors   | 3  | Immersive boardroom simulations |
| Gain a globally recognised degree-level qualification that accelerates your leadership journey and enhances your global credentials.  |                                      | Expert-led sessions designed by directors for directors provide cutting-edge insights on corporate strategy, board dynamics, and finance and empower you with actionable insights and leadership strategies to excel in your role as a leading director. |  | Experience real-world scenarios that mirror today’s governance challenges in a high-stakes boardroom environment. Refine your strategic decision-making skills in a safe and supportive environment. |                                 |
| 4   | High-profile speakers                | 5  | High-calibre networking and executive coaching | 6  | Luxury meets learning           |
| Participate in engaging in-person sessions with renowned thought leaders and industry pioneers, including the iconic environmental activist and consumer advocate Erin Brockovich, as they explore critical global business trends. |                                      | Join a powerful peer group of international business leaders, create lifelong connections, participate in executive coaching sessions, and access global business leaders who will shape your future board success.                                      |  | Experience six and a half days of learning in a luxurious, distraction-free setting, with gourmet dining, spa treatments, championship golf, and scenic coastal views at Fairmont St Andrews.        |                                 |

Contents

Programme content	6
Programme delivery	7
Delivery team	10
Masterclasses and distinguished speakers	14
Keynote speaker: Erin Brockovich	15
Participant profile	20
Examinations	22
Heritage and forward thinking	23
Investment and benefits	26
Next steps	27

”

The IoD is an organisation that exists for the public good and is designed to support directors in effectively running businesses in the public interest. Better directors mean better-run businesses; better businesses mean a better economy. And a better economy means a better world.”

Jonathan Geldart

Director General, IoD

Programme content

The Global Certificate in Company Direction includes four modules, which are delivered through case studies and real-world exercises that analyse both successful and failed strategies.

These modules focus on collaborative planning and problem-solving tasks:

Strategy for Directors

Enhance your strategic foresight and decision-making with a module designed to build your expertise in strategic insight, boardroom confidence, and effective execution. Gain valuable skills in strategic analysis and planning while learning to monitor progress and mitigate risks. Develop priorities for action and resource management while understanding the critical role of governance and ethics in strategy.

Role of the Director and the Board

Explore the essential duties and legal responsibilities of directors and the board while gaining valuable insights into corporate governance. This module equips you with practical skills to confidently tackle boardroom challenges and promote a culture of integrity and accountability within your organisation. Enhance board effectiveness and implement best practices, all while ensuring compliance with legal and ethical standards to secure your company’s prosperity. Learn to master the dynamics of governance and risk assurance for a successful future.

Leadership for Directors

Unlock your potential as a director by mastering essential leadership concepts tailored specifically for your role on the board. Enhance your influence and leadership styles so that you can manage change effectively and drive organisational success. This programme focuses on building high-performing teams, how to foster a positive culture and confidently navigate change. Build self-awareness and gain valuable insights into stakeholder relations and performance management, enabling you to make a lasting impact within and beyond your organisation.

Finance for Non-Finance Directors

Learn to navigate the complexities of financial leadership to organisational success. This will demystify the world of finance and enhance your understanding of the director’s role in finance and the interplay between financial and corporate strategies. This module will boost your financial literacy, sharpen your decision-making skills, and build your confidence in discussing financial health. You will learn effective reporting techniques, gain insights into financial statements and ratios, and develop risk mitigation strategies. Ultimately, you’ll create long-term financial value for the organisation while fulfilling your duties as a director.

Programme delivery

The programme will be delivered using a blended model, a mix of the in-person residential learning and virtual session.

Immerse yourself in a transformative six-and-a-half-day residential with industry leaders in a luxurious five-star setting. Attend masterclasses given by distinguished speakers. Learn with and from your peers alongside world-class faculty from the Institute of Directors and the University of St Andrews Business School.

Enhance your influencing skills while networking and forging invaluable connections with other directors.

Residential

 Six-and-a-half-days
12pm Saturday 18 October to 5pm Friday 24 October 2025

 Fairmont Hotel, St Andrews,
Scotland

During the residential, you will embark on an intensive, accelerated journey through the three modules:

- 1 Strategy for Directors
- 2 Leadership for Directors
- 3 Role of the Director and the Board

This will be accompanied by:

Board simulation

You will develop your board performance while being assessed by your coach and peers. You will engage in practical, simulated boardroom challenges designed to provide a safe and supportive environment.

With guidance from your coach and valuable insights from your peers, you will acquire essential tools and techniques that will enhance your competencies and empower you to assess and elevate your board’s performance effectively. Transforming your skills and driving impactful results.

Elite speakers

You will hear from an inspiring lineup of distinguished speakers tackling crucial topics, including ESG, geopolitical uncertainty, crisis management, AI, sustainability, and leadership. Benefit from the insights of expert instructors and seasoned practitioners specialising in governance strategy, leadership, and finance. Don’t miss the opportunity to engage with thought leaders shaping the future.

Virtual

 Three days
Tuesday 2 December to Thursday 4 December 2025

 Online

4 Finance for Non-Finance Directors

Following the residential programme, a virtual session will commence to delve into the fourth and final module of Finance for Non-Finance Directors. This is your opportunity to gain the essential skills and knowledge to evaluate business plans, critically engage with financial information, and play a transformative role in boardroom decision-making.

 Executive coaching sessions

You have access to three transformative one-hour virtual sessions, offering tailored guidance and insights crafted around your unique aspirations. Our global executive coaching service empowers you by connecting you with specialist C-suite coaches dedicated to elevating your leadership skills, propelling your company and team to remarkable new heights, and igniting your long-term career vision.

Delivery team

IoD faculty

Dr Simon Haslam, PhD, MBA, CDir, CMC, FRSA
Programme Lead,
Strategy for Directors

Simon is a chartered director, fellow of the Royal Society of Arts and a member of the Advisory Committee at the Institute of Consulting. He is a certified management consultant and double finalist in the CMI/Institute of Consulting UK Consultant of the Publications.

Janhavi Dadarkar CDir
Programme Lead,
Leadership for Directors

Janhavi holds a portfolio of NED positions and has over two decades of experience in advising corporates and entrepreneurs. After starting as a lawyer in top City of London firms, she turned to corporate and government affairs as an equity partner in an India focused advisory firm which she helped build, restructure and exit. She is a recognised expert and frequent speaker on governance and cross-border transactions. Janhavi has authored many guides and articles on a variety of topics, including doing business in India, best corporate practices and joint ventures.

Sheelagh Duffield
Programme Lead,
Role of Director and the Board

Sheelagh is a qualified lawyer with over 20 years of board level experience and has held senior executive roles within the corporate departments of Scottish Television plc, Scottish Power plc, and The Miller Group Limited. Sheelagh has a successful track record of leading complex projects and delivering organisational change.

Talita Ferrera CDir
Course Leader,
Finance for Non-Finance
Directors modules

Talita is a seasoned C-suite executive, non-executive director, chair of audit, chartered director, consultant, author, leadership trainer, and international speaker. She has worked with global brands, including KPMG, Investec Bank, Tandem Bank, Ford Credit Europe Bank Plc and Henry Boot Plc, to name a few. She was former CFO and CHRO of BMW UK Ltd. and BMW Financial Services Ltd.

The University of St Andrews Business School faculty

Delivery team

Professor Anna Brattström
Chair of Entrepreneurship

Anna's research focuses on the people side of entrepreneurship: how to form entrepreneurial teams, effectively function in them, and work with others to turn ideas into outcomes. Her research has been published in leading academic journals, and she has experience working with executive education to turn research-based insights into actionable learning outcomes.

Professor Carole Elliott
Professor of Leadership Development (with visiting professorships at Copenhagen Business School and Rennes School of Business)

Carole's research, funded by prestigious institutions including the ESRC and The Leverhulme Trust, focuses on leadership learning and critical human resource development. She has co-edited several influential works, including "Gender, Media and Organization" (2016) and "Genderwashing in Leadership" (2024). Dr. Elliott's contributions to the field have earned multiple accolades from the Academy of Human Resource Development, including the Outstanding HRD Scholar Award (2022). She currently co-Chairs the University Forum for Human Resource Development.

John Ferguson
Co-Director of the Centre for Social and Environmental Accounting Research (CSEAR)

John's research interests are in the area of corporate governance and accountability. In particular, his work explores the social and organisational impact of different models of corporate governance and issues related to corporate accountability for human rights. In respect of the latter, John has worked with the Scottish Government to develop a National Baseline Assessment (NBA) of Scotland's implementation of the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (UNGPs).

The University of
St Andrews
Business School
faculty

Professor Phillips O'Brien FRSE
Chair of Strategic Studies

Phillips focuses on the relationship between politics and grand strategy, shaping strategic policies in peacetime and wartime. He explores how top decision-makers navigate their roles while being influenced by the structures they manage. While his earlier research centred on grand strategy in World War II, he is now increasingly interested in 21st-century conflict. He also examines how Strategic Studies and Management Studies can learn from each other regarding strategy.

Professor Ruth Woodfield
Professor of Equalities & Organisation and Vice-Dean of Research & Impact

Ruth is the University's first Assistant Vice-Principal (Diversity), and current Co-Director of the Centre for Research into Equality, Diversity & Inclusion, she brings extensive senior management experience to her role. A trained mediator, Professor Woodfield specialises in organisational success through equality and inclusion, with extensive publications addressing workplace participation, progression, and belonging disparities.

Dr Anna Brown
Senior Lecturer in Management

Anna is an award-winning educator. She brings arts-based methods to the classroom to drive social change. Her research explores skill, identity, and belonging in creative work and higher education, focusing on sustainable and inclusive futures. Her public sector experience and leadership roles, including her Faculty Lead for Equality, Diversity and Inclusion position, inform her strategic change approach. and teaching pursue strategic change for a more sustainable, inclusive and just future.

Dr Marcel Lukas
Vice-Dean Executive Education

Marcel's research explores consumer financial decision-making, financial technology, and financial education, particularly behavioural aspects of spending and saving. A policy advisor to government bodies and financial regulators, Marcel shapes financial education initiatives and serves as a Fellow at the Office for National Statistics. He leads executive education programmes on AI applications in business and finance, bringing valuable industry experience from his previous roles at Volkswagen and IBM to his academic and advisory work.

“

This collaboration brings together the academic excellence of St Andrews and the IoD’s unmatched expertise in corporate governance. The Global Certificate in Company Direction is for leaders who want to drive meaningful change and excel in their boardroom roles. By combining real-world case studies, peer learning and cutting-edge research, this programme offers a transformative experience for directors worldwide.”

Professor Mark Brewer

Dean of the University of St Andrews
Business School

Masterclasses and distinguished speakers

In today's rapidly evolving business landscape, directors encounter unique challenges and opportunities.

You must navigate geopolitical tensions, address sustainability demands, and embrace technological advancements and innovative leadership. To achieve success in this unprecedented world, board members need to possess the insight, agility, and foresight necessary for effective leadership.

Keynote speaker

Erin Brockovich

Erin Brockovich is one of those rare individuals whose true story has become part of our public consciousness. Seen by millions as a symbol of American justice and the importance of fighting for the truth, Brockovich continues to advocate for those who cannot speak for themselves. Her determination led to the revelation of a 30-year history of groundwater contamination in Hinkley, California, caused by Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E).

Through her exhaustive investigation, Erin uncovered that PG&E had been poisoning the water supply in the small town of Hinkley for over three decades. Her unwavering tenacity exposed the company for leaking toxic Chromium 6 into the groundwater, which significantly affected the health of Hinkley's residents. In 1996, as a result of the largest direct action lawsuit of its kind—spearheaded by Erin and her attorney Ed Masry—the utility giant was compelled to pay $333 million in damages to more than 600 residents, marking it as the largest toxic tort injury settlement in U.S. history.

Erin's relentless pursuit of justice for the victims demonstrates that one person can indeed make a difference. She believes that everyone, in their own way, can contribute to positive change.

As the president of Brockovich Research & Consulting, Erin is actively involved in numerous environmental projects worldwide. She receives requests for assistance with groundwater contamination complaints from every state in the U.S., as well as from Australia and other international locations. Currently, she is working on cases in California, Texas, Florida, Michigan, Illinois, and Missouri. In addition, Erin has made a significant mark in the publishing world with her New York Times bestseller, "Take It From Me: Life's A Struggle, But You Can Win."

Geopolitics

Navigating global uncertainty

In a world of shifting political alliances, economic volatility, and regulatory change, today's leaders must master the art of strategic resilience. This masterclass equips you with the foresight to anticipate risks, seize opportunities, and drive stability in an unpredictable global landscape.

Speaker

Professor Phillips O'Brien FRSE

Professor O'Brien's recent work has focused extensively on the Russia-Ukraine conflict. He has worked with scholars and analysts in Ukraine, throughout the rest of Europe, and across the Atlantic to try to digest some of the war's lessons and understand why the prewar analysis was so fundamentally flawed. His commentary has been published regularly in The Atlantic, The Times, The Spectator, The Telegraph, and other major newspapers and journals. At the same time, he has made media appearances for outlets in more than 15 countries, including MSNBC, CNN, NPR, BBC, DW, and L'Express.

Innovation and global leadership

Shaping the future of business

Only the boldest leaders thrive in an era of rapid disruption. These masterclasses will challenge you to think innovatively and cultivate a leadership mindset that drives transformative growth on the global stage.

Speakers

John Browett

John was appointed as Chair of the Institute of Directors in July 2024.

During his extensive executive career, working with both large and smaller companies, he was chief executive of Dunelm, Dixons and Monsoon Accessorize, and Senior Vice President of Retail at Apple and Group Operations Development Director at Tesco.

In addition to his role as Chair of the Institute, John is the Chair of Octopus Group and fraud prevention organisation Cifas, as well as Eurooffice, Northern Business Plastics, Just Move In, Yoti and Wehkamp BV. He is also a Senior Advisor to the Boston Consulting Group.

John has a degree in Natural Sciences from Cambridge University and an MBA degree from Wharton Business School (Palmer Scholar).

Hamish Taylor

Hamish Taylor is an award-winning CEO and an inspirational speaker whose career has spanned major organisations such as Procter & Gamble, PricewaterhouseCoopers, and British Airways. He later became the CEO of Eurostar, the channel tunnel railway, followed by his role as CEO of Sainsbury’s Bank.

He left a legacy of significant business growth in each position by challenging conventional approaches. This unique perspective has led to his advice and expertise being sought by organisations worldwide across various industries. The Inspired Leaders Network has given him the title “Masterthief” due to his talent for transferring ideas between different sectors.

Frequently featured in the media, Hamish now serves as an advisor to some of the world’s largest companies, as well as governments, focusing on innovation projects, customer-centric strategies, and people leadership. As a speaker, Hamish delivers energetic, humorous, and inspirational presentations. He strongly advocates for placing the customer at the centre of all activities to drive change successfully.

Hamish famously stated, “If you want a breakthrough, look outside your current environment.” A Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Bankers and the Chartered Institute of Transport, he has also held academic positions at prominent institutions such as the London School of Economics and Emory University.

Governance

Strengthening integrity and board effectiveness

Corporate governance is the backbone of organisational success. This session will help you balance boardroom dynamics, risk and ethical decision-making, ensuring your board operates with excellence, transparency, and accountability.

Speaker

Dame Sue Street

Dame Sue reached the top of Whitehall as the Permanent Secretary for Culture, Media and Sport and led that Department for the UK’s winning bid for London 2012. She has extensive experience in the leadership and governance of major public, private and not for profit organisations.

Sue has a reputation for effective strategic leadership, and as a senior board member of organisations ranging from HMRC and the Ministry of Justice to the Royal Opera House, BUPA, an overseas tech start up, and Deloitte. She is an experienced Chair and known to take a constructive approach to major Non Executive roles. She has served on Finance, Audit, Remuneration and Nomination Committees as well as main boards. Dame Sue currently chairs Ballet Rambert and is a member of a charitable trust board. She has been invited to share her thoughts on governance with the Cabinet Office, Henley Management School and with not for profit boards.

Dame Sue is an accredited executive coach with a current extensive practice of clients. She has also conducted major public sector Board governance reviews.

Technology and digital

Harnessing disruption for competitive advantage

The digital revolution is reshaping industries at lightning speed. This masterclass delves into AI, cybersecurity, and digital transformation, equipping you to leverage technology, mitigate risks, and future-proof your organisation in the face of constant innovation.

Speaker

Dr Erin Young

Dr Erin Young leads the IoD's policy, strategy and thought leadership work on technology, science and innovation.

Before joining the IoD, Erin was Project Co-Lead and Research Fellow in Public Policy at The Alan Turing Institute, the UK's National Institute for Data Science and AI, where her work influenced the UK's National AI Strategy and AI Opportunities Action Plan. Previously, Erin held positions at the United Nations (UN IIEP-UNESCO) in Paris, Kantar/WPP in London, MediaX at Stanford University, and Thomson Reuters in New York City, across policy, strategic communications, research, stakeholder engagement and government affairs.

Erin sits on the Strategy Steering Board for the City of London Corporation's Women Pivoting to Digital Taskforce and advises the Hg Foundation on AI, skills and inequalities. She is frequently featured in high-profile media and presents across business and government including the European Parliament, GCHQ, KKR and the UK Science and Innovation Network (FCDO/DSIT) at British Embassies and Consulates globally.

Erin holds a BA in Classics from the University of Cambridge, an MSc (Distinction) in Education (Learning and Technology) from the University of Oxford, a PGC in International Business Practice, Finance and Organisational Behaviour from St Mary's University, and a Ph.D. (D.Phil) in Science and Technology Studies (STS) from the University of Oxford.

Participant profile

The participant profile will be typically made up of:

Senior executives who regularly interact with organisational boards

Non-Executive Directors,
Chairs, and Executive board members
looking to transition to a non-Executive board role

CEOs, COOS, CFOs,
C-Suite executives
as well as controlling shareholders and family members of boards
and family companies

Participants from all industries and ownership types are welcome, including publicly held,
private equity-owned, NGO's, the public sector, family-controlled, government, and voluntary and community sectors.

93%

of past IoD participants regularly use the programme’s learnings in their current roles (daily, weekly, monthly).

What makes our participants unique?

Diversity of experience

Each cohort brings together individuals from various sectors, industries, and cultural backgrounds, creating a dynamic environment for peer-to-peer learning.

Commitment to growth

Participants are united by their ambition to lead with purpose, adapt to the evolving demands of the global marketplace, and implement governance practices that deliver real-world impact.

Collaborative spirit

Through interactive learning and shared challenges, participants build lasting networks that support their personal and professional growth long after the programme concludes.

Examinations

Participants will take four exams, each testing the four modules. Each exam will last 45 minutes and consist of 16 multiple-choice questions.

89%

reported that IoD accreditation helped them secure a new board role, demonstrating their commitment to professionalism and good governance.

Delivery + timeframe

 Three days

 Online

Four exams

Strategy for Directors

Leadership for Directors

Role of the Director and Board

Finance for Non-Finance Directors

Exam dates made available during the programme*

Awarding of Certificate of Company Direction

Upon completing the examinations, you will gain the IoD Certificate in Company Direction, a globally recognised symbol of excellence in governance.

This trusted qualification empowers board-level professionals, enabling you to advance your career, drive boardroom performance, and meet regulatory standards. It equips you to tackle emerging challenges such as geopolitics, governance, sustainability, environmental and technological disruption.

The Certificate in Company Direction is not just a certification; it is a pivotal step on your journey to becoming a chartered director.

You will also receive a completion certificate from the University of St Andrews Business School and the IoD for the Global Certificate in Company Direction programme.

Additionally, you will have the privilege of attending the graduation ceremony at the prestigious IoD head office 116 Pall Mall in London.

*Proposed timeframes for completing the module exams will be provided closer to the course start date, along with available exam options.

Heritage and forward thinking

The Institute of Directors (IoD) and the University of St Andrews offer a programme that combines 732 years of learning and leadership.

This programme provides valuable insights and proven strategies that have endured over time. Both prestigious organisations honour their rich heritage while looking to the future by empowering the next generation of leaders.

IoD

Since its inception in 1903, the Institute of Directors (IoD) has stood at the forefront of the business landscape, achieving Royal Charter status in 1906. With a steadfast commitment to promoting free enterprise, advocating for the interests of the business community, and raising the standards of corporate governance, the IoD has built a legacy over 120 years.

We proudly serve as the authoritative voice for entrepreneurialism, professionalism, and exemplary governance in the UK and beyond.

As a distinguished professional organisation empowered by a century-long Royal Charter, the IoD is dedicated to nurturing responsible leadership among directors and leaders. Our mission is to develop, support, and represent skilled, knowledgeable, and principled leaders, thereby benefiting the economy and society as a whole. As a non-profit organisation, we strive to elevate the competence and governance duties of directors. With a vibrant community of over 20,000 members, the Institute of Directors embodies the collective voice of directors and actively champions their interests with the UK government.

University of St Andrews

Founded in the 15th century, the University of St Andrews is Scotland's oldest university and the third oldest in the English-speaking world. The Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide 2025 named St Andrews Scottish University of the year. The Guardian University Guide 2025 ranked St Andrews as the top University in Scotland and second in the UK. The University of St Andrews Business School prepares professionals to succeed in a fast-evolving business landscape by offering a world-class educational experience. Their objective is to equip leaders to be pioneers in a digitally transformed world and to develop sustainable business models that are essential in today's environmentally conscious market.

Tradition meets sustainability at Kingsbarns

Set within a beautifully restored 18th-century Grade B listed building, Kingsbarns Distillery blends rich historic character with progressive commitment to sustainability. From local sourcing to low-carbon innovations, every detail reflects a respect for tradition and the environment an inspiring setting for reflection and leadership.

The evening will include:

Welcome reception

Upon arrival, guests will be greeted with a complimentary drink.

Private distillery tour

Delve into the inspiring story of Kingsbarns distillery, featured in Forbes, as you explore our distillery. The tour includes:

- Insights into Scottish whisky evolution and regional characteristics.
- An overview of single malt whisky production, with exclusive access to the still room.

Three-course 'Taste of Scotland' menu

Enjoy dishes crafted from locally sourced ingredients from Fife, Angus, and Perthshire, each paired with a premium single malt whisky. Our whisky expert will guide you through each pairing, offering insights into the region, distillery, age, and flavour profile of the whisky.

Bottle Shop Experience

Conclude your evening with a visit to our bottle shop, where enthusiasts can sample and purchase our spirits as keepsakes.

Investment and benefits

Investment	Qualification*	Exclusive membership
£19,500 per delegate Includes meals at the luxury Fairmont Hotel in St Andrews, a Kingsbarns distillery tour, and all programme materials	IoD Certificate in Company Direction In addition to a certificate in module completion from the University of St Andrews Business School and the IoD	One-year IoD membership and access to the St Andrews alumni network

One-year IoD membership

Directors from every sector and every corner of the world have joined the IoD for over 120 years, seeking support to start, run and grow successful businesses. We have a thriving global member community of 20,000 skilled directors and leaders.

Membership benefits include:

-

Access Professional Director Series (CPD) for free.
-

Learn, share experiences, and connect with fellow directors and leaders through virtual and in-person events.
-

Utilise resources, guides, and fact sheets to manage and grow your business.
-

Obtain unbiased, confidential advice on strategic and operational challenges from our business, tax, and legal experts.
-

Amplify your voice; the IoD represents members to the UK government, influencing debate and advocating for change.
-

Make one of our hubs your office by booking flexible workspaces and private rooms, or take advantage of free meeting areas, including our prestigious headquarters at 116 Pall Mall, London.

St Andrews Alumni

Become part of a vibrant global community with a legacy spanning seven centuries and nearly 70,000 St Andrews graduates while enjoying exclusive alumni privileges.

*Qualification of IoD Certificate in Company Direction pending successful completion of exams

Next steps

Enhance your leadership presence and connect with a network of global business leaders through our transformative residential programme. With a limited number of places available, this is a unique opportunity for leaders to deepen their governance expertise. Admissions will be secured on a first-come, first-served basis. It will be a truly exclusive experience that brings together a diverse range of sectors and backgrounds.

Unlock your potential: register your details

By registering your information, you will gain access to our upcoming events featuring insights from programme faculty and masterclass speakers. These events will provide further discussions about the programme.

Due to the expected high demand, we highly encourage delegates to apply early to avoid disappointment.

Please **click here** to register your details.

For additional information on our Global Certificate in Company Direction, please contact us:

Email: **ExecEducation@iod.com**

Visit: **iod.com**

In collaboration with

Business
School
Executive
Education