

IoD MEMBERSHIP

Connecting directors
across the UK

The difference between a good director and a great director is the company they keep

The IoD is a thriving membership community for directors in the UK and beyond, where you can connect with other leaders, develop your skills and be heard. At a time when great directors have never been more important, the IoD offers professional development, valuable connections and insights.

For just £494 a year, gain exclusive access to:

Training

Advance your knowledge and skills with professional development training created by directors for directors. Courses range from bitesize digital self-paced learning to one-day sessions and full qualifications.

Events

Learn, share and connect with fellow directors and leaders virtually and in-person at events hosted at IoD hubs across the UK and beyond.

Insight

Get information to help you manage and grow your business, with resources, guides and factsheets written by the IoD's research team, based on real business queries.

Advice

Get unbiased, confidential advice on strategic and operational challenges from our business experts as part of our Information and Advisory Service (IAS).

Influence

Be heard. The IoD is its members' voice to UK government, influencing the debate, shaping the agenda and advocating change.

Premises and hubs

Make one of our hubs your office. Book flexible workspaces and private rooms or take advantage of our free meeting areas.

Professional Development

Whether you're starting or cementing your role as a company director the IoD can help you develop your existing business skills and broaden your knowledge with new ones. Our world-class professional development, designed by directors for directors, helps you and your senior leaders steer your organisation effectively and successfully, supporting a shared commitment to lifelong learning.

Training courses

Equip yourself to succeed in the boardroom

IoD training courses cover the essentials needed to successfully shape and challenge an organisation's leadership and can be taken individually or as part of training packages. Led by expert practitioners with real world experience, they provide a detailed understanding of the roles and responsibilities of key positions within strong leadership teams.

Chartered Director Programme

The gold standard director-level programme

Our flagship director programme rigorously expands, tests and supports your expertise and portfolio as a business leader – culminating in an interview to secure globally recognised Chartered Director Status.

The three stages – the Certificate in Company Direction, the Diploma in Company Direction and a Chartered Director interview – provide you with a comprehensive and holistic understanding of what it takes to be an effective director, enabling you to perform at your best.

In-house Development

Director and Board level development solutions delivered to you

Our flexible in-house training is led by experienced directors who work alongside you to get to the heart of what your board needs, whether that is training, consultancy or executive coaching. Using a combination of facilitated classroom sessions, real-world case studies and small group exercises, we will get your people thinking strategically, motivating them to raise their game.

CPD

Stay up-to-date with the latest insights

We provide a range of complimentary CPD courses for IoD members to help you and your board stay up-to-date. Sign up for our Professional Director Series in which business leaders share their insights on current, relevant topics.

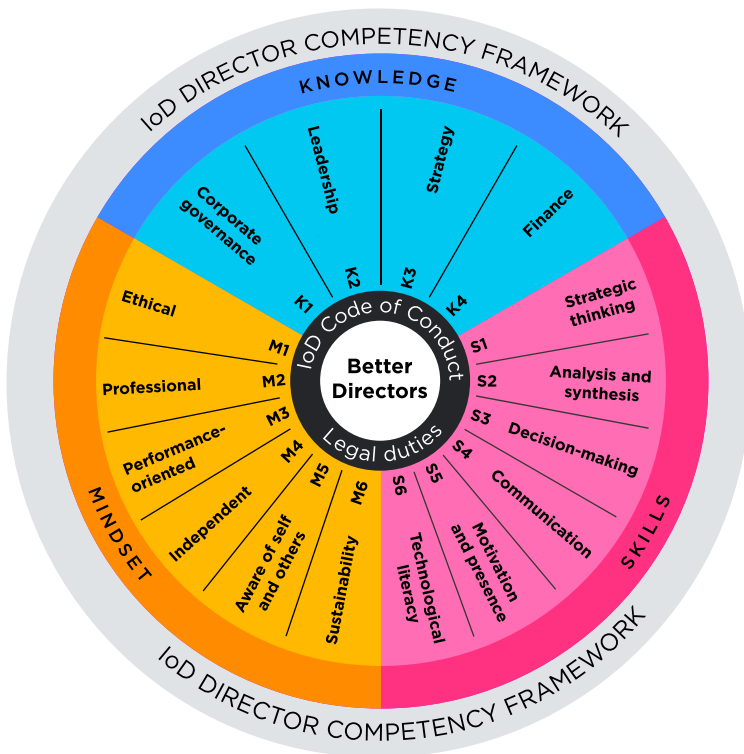

Delivered virtually or through digital self-paced learning, the series offers accessible, digestible CPD, mapped to our Director Competency Framework. Whether you attend one or all of the sessions, you'll gain skills and refresh your knowledge.

Start your Chartered Director journey by exploring the Certificate in Company Direction, or discover the comprehensive range of professional development courses offered by the IoD at iod.com.

Do you know what you need to know?

The IoD Director Competency Framework is an important tool for directors and their equivalents that sets the standard for professional practice and what it takes to become an exceptional director and leader. It has been created to serve as a benchmark to identify how you are performing and a blueprint for shaping your personal learning pathway.

Policy

Providing business insights

The IoD's Policy Team is a leading authority on trends, risks and opportunities in the business, economic and political environment. We help you to make sense of new regulation and geopolitical developments. Stay-up-to-date as a director through our publications, podcasts, webinars and events.

Tell UK Government what you think

Policy Voice

Policy Voice is a monthly survey encouraging IoD members to share their views on contemporary issues, providing statistical evidence and anecdotal detail on the issues that matter most to businesses. Members receive personalised monthly invitations and reminders to participate in each survey.

How we use Policy Voice

We use Policy Voice to collect and share evidence around key issues that affect our members, including in the routine conversations we have with UK Government. The data is also regularly reported in national newspapers, amplifying the voices and opinions of our members.
